Children's Services: Use the link <http://bit.ly/tbechildrenservices2019> to sign up

Rosh HaShanah Monday, September 30 9:00 - 10:00 am
Yom Kippur Wednesday, October 9 9:00 - 10:00 am

This service is designed for children below 3rd grade and their parents to introduce them to an age appropriate High Holiday service experience. Tickets are not required for this service. Infant seats and strollers are only permitted in the auditorium during this service. This service takes place at the Glenbrook South High School Auditorium, therefore food is not permitted. It is open to the community. Invite your friends. This service will be ASL interpreted. Please use the link above to sign up for the services so we can be prepared for the number of guests and send you any updates.

Tashlich Service

Rosh HaShanah Monday, September 30 3:45 pm

This service is located at Wood Oaks Park in Northbrook by the lake. It is a half hour outdoor service with singing, readings, and "casting away of sins", led by Temple Beth-El clergy. Children love the "casting away of sins" by throwing bread in the lake. Wood Oaks Park is located at 1150 Sanders Road in Northbrook.

Young Children's Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur Activities

Rosh HaShanah Monday, September 30 10:15 am - 1:00 pm
Yom Kippur Wednesday, October 9 10:15 am - 1:00 pm

Children age 2 through 2nd grade can attend age appropriate supervised activities in the cafeteria at Glenbrook South High School while parents worship at the 10:30 am Service. Stories, games, crafts and other fun surprises are planned to introduce children to themes of the holidays. Please send a nut-free lunch for your child clearly marked with first and last names. Refrigeration is not available. Cost is $10 per child for each holiday. Children must be signed up by September 16, for us to plan properly. Please use the form below. NO child will be admitted without pre-registration. The parent's High Holiday ticket must be shown at drop-off. (We will not have anyone to change diapers at these sessions).
